County Council

In Nottinghamshire, we recognise that kinship carers play a vital role in supporting children, often making remarkable sacrifices to keep their families together.

As children grow older there can be new challenges at different stages of development, such as the move from primary to secondary school, entering adolescence, or past experiences of trauma. There may also be needs and behaviours more specific to your child.

For carers, you may find your jobs or long-term plans have been disrupted by the need to raise your child, with some carers experiencing financial difficulties, as well as emotional stress arising from court processes, and maintaining a relationship with your other family members.

As part of the Nottinghamshire Plan, we've set up a Kinship Support Service which is on hand to support all families in a Kinship arrangement, whether you have a Special Guardianship Order, Child Arrangement Order or a private/informal arrangement.

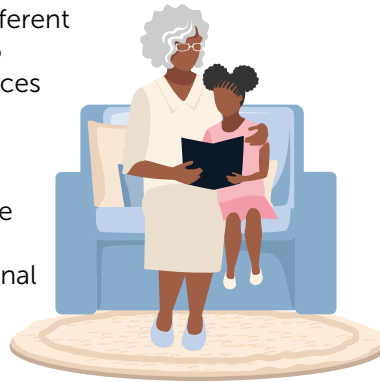

Your Kinship Support Service

If you want to access any kind of support and are unsure what is available, please contact the Kinship Support Service via email: kinshipsupport@nottscc.gov.uk or phone: 0115 804 1407.

Our team of social workers, family workers and welfare rights officers can offer targeted support, general advice, and signposting to local or national support groups.

Some of the support we offer includes:

- ✓ Reviewing special guardianship order support plans, or care plans for families on other legal orders
- ✓ Training to prepare you for being a kinship carer and to support you once the child is in your care
- ✓ Advice about kinship allowances, benefits entitlements and education entitlements
- ✓ Life story work for children growing up in a kinship arrangement
- ✓ Support applying for the Adoption Support Fund on behalf of eligible kinship families who would benefit from therapeutic services

Whatever support you need, it's important to realise that it's ok to ask for help.

- ✓ Being available during office hours if you need to get in touch, online information and out of hours support when you need it.
- ✓ Membership of, or signposting to, kinship support groups through our partners in the voluntary sector.

To find out more please contact our Kinship Support Service, on either 0115 804 1407 or email: kinshipsupport@nottscc.gov.uk

External Support for Kinship families

Kinship Reach

Nottinghamshire County Council has commissioned leading national charity Kinship to provide independent virtual support to our kinship families. Common issues Kinship Reach can support with include:

- Emotional distress, often around family breakdown – bereavement, imprisonment, mental health of birth parents
- Isolation & loneliness
- Emotional & physical exhaustion
- Financial crisis, particularly around stopping work to become a kinship carer
- Health concerns
- Managing relationships with family members – particularly around contact
- Housing concerns – unsuitable housing for taking on kinship role
- Lack of digital skills
- Children's behaviour & wellbeing, including answering difficult questions about life story.

To access Kinship Reach or discover more, we'd recommend contacting the Kinship Support Service for a referral, or you can self-refer online via this webpage - <https://kinship.org.uk/for-kinship-carers/get-more-support/free-support/>
